Unique loo seats from Goodwood Bathrooms

The loo seat above retails from £254 including VAT

Experts in quality bespoke designs; Goodwood Bathrooms, have found a brilliant solution to a common everyday problem.

As the largest manufacturer of unusual, regular and discontinued toilet seats, Goodwood Bathrooms has created the perfect answer to finding a toilet seat that will match virtually any existing or new WC pan and décor. Accessed via Goodwood Bathrooms website or its sister website www.oddshapelooseat.co.uk, customers can browse online through an expanding range of 300 different shaped toilet seats. Goodwood Bathrooms offer a colour matching service on its wood finishes and a selection of 3 solid colours and 16 environmentally friendly sustainable woods.

A choice of fittings are available to mix and match with the various options of colour, finish and shape. All hinges are manufactured from solid brass and plated in either chrome, inca gold, bright or matt nickel. The unique hinges and buffers design are non marking and feature a molded in washer and screw design which prevents the buffer from falling off. Built to last, the toilet seats are sprayed with a durable two pack a/c lacquer with hand sanding between the coats to produce the highest quality finish. With a lifetime guarantee on hinge and buffer components, these toilet seats are truly built to last.
